

Fees & Charges for Public Hospital Services

Fees & charges for some public hospital services are revised from 1 April 2003.

Service	Revised Fees
Accident & Emergency	$100 per attendance (from 29 November 2002)
In-patient (general acute beds)	$50 admission fee for the 1 st day, $100 per day
In-patient (convalescent, rehabilitation, infirmary & psychiatric beds)	$68 per day (no change)
Specialist out-patient (including allied health services)	$100 for the 1 st attendance, $60 per attendance, $10 per drug item (see note)
General out-patient	$45 per attendance
Dressing & Injection	$17 per attendance
Geriatric, Psychiatric & Rehabilitation day hospital	$55 per attendance (no change)
Community nursing (general)	$80 per visit
Community nursing (psychiatric)	Free ($55 per visit before 1 April 2003)
Community allied health services (general)	$64 per treatment
Community allied health services (psychiatric)	Free (no change)
Private services and Non-eligible Persons	Full cost or market rates

(Note : Drug charges for specialist out-patient clinics will commence from 1 May 2003)

Services are charged as per Gazette. Patients who have financial difficulties and wish to apply for waiver of fees could contact Medical Social Worker during office hours. (Monday to Friday: 8:45am to 5:15pm; Saturday: 9:00am to 12:00pm; except Public Holidays)

(Location: Room 122, Block J, Queen Mary Hospital Tel: 2255 3764)

Eligible Persons of public health services are holders of Hong Kong Identity Card issued under the Registration of Persons Ordinance and their children who are under 11 years of age. The others are classified as “Non-eligible Persons”