

Advanced Training in Mental Health for Frontline Mental Health Professionals:

Overview, Identification and Management of Substance-induced Psychosis in the Community

Speaker: Dr. YEUNG Sze-wing, Amy

Associate Consultant, Castle Peak Hospital

(青山醫院副顧問醫生楊詩詠)

Course Description

Substance-induced psychotic disorder is one of the commonest comorbidity seen in substance abusers who attends psychiatric clinic. It severely impairs the function of substance abusers and makes the recovery process more complicated than usual.

Identification and management of substance-induced psychotic disorder will be discussed in this webinar to provide a clearer picture of the problem and facilitate the formulation of care plan by workers in various disciplines.

Date & Time

16 November 2022 (Wednesday)

2:30 – 4:30 pm

Format & Platform

Webinar (online via Zoom)

Course Fee

HK$300 per person

Medium of Teaching

Cantonese

(supplemented with English)

Application Deadline

1 November 2022

Target Participants

Frontline mental health professionals with experience in managing clients who have substance-induced psychosis

Certificate

Certificate of attendance will be issued to participants who have attended the webinar

Accreditation

CME/CNE/CPD/CE

accreditation in application

Please visit IMH website www.imh.org.hk for more details and download the enrolment form

Enquiry

Tel: 2456 7775 (Ms. LAM)

Fax: 2455 9330

Email: cph_imh@ha.org.hk

Website: www.imh.org.hk

