

Lo Chi Kin

Ph.D., JP

Managing Director, C.K. Lo & S. Lam Ltd.

Dr. C.K. Lo is a renowned and respected public affairs and communications expert in Hong Kong.

C.K. set up C.K. Lo & S. Lam Ltd, a public affairs and lobbying specialist, with Sam Lam in January 1994. Prior to starting his own business, C.K. had been the Director of Public Affairs/Hong Kong & China at Burson-Marsteller in 1992-93, and held senior management positions in a local IT manufacturer, the Hong Kong office of a global commodities trader, and a local daily.

C.K. is active in public service. He is currently member of Committee on Governance and Political Development of the Commission on Strategic Development chaired by the SAR Chief Executive himself, member of the Advisory Council on Food and Environmental Hygiene, and Vice-Chair of Oxfam Hong Kong.

C.K. obtained his Ph.D. at London School of Economics and Political Sciences and B.Soc.Sc. at the University of Hong Kong. He contributes regularly to local newspapers and has published and edited a number of books on China and Hong Kong politics.

C.K. was appointed Justice of the Peace in 2005, was awarded the Honorary University Fellowship of The Open University of Hong Kong in 2004, and received The Outstanding Young Person Award in 1990.

(THE END)

10 February, 2006