

Prof Bernard V. Lim, Principal, AD+RG Architecture Design and Research Group Ltd., and Professor (Fractional Appointment), Department of Architecture, the Chinese University of Hong Kong.

For years he has also been elected Architects Registration Board Member and has been a Council Member of the Hong Kong Institute of Architects (HKIA) contributing particularly in new initiatives for community development and local affairs. President of the HKIA 2005-6.

He was appointed a Town Planning Board Member in 2004; Antiquities Advisory Board Member and Energy Advisory Committee Member in 2005; Specialist Architectural Advisor to the Legislative Council Commission in 2002.

He has established professional specialization/ research in areas of (A) Institutional, Educational, and Elderly Buildings; (B) Sustainable designs; and (C) Community Participatory Planning and Workshops. His leading research on Innovative School Designs has been supported by the Quality Education Fund. Previous and recent projects with HKIA Annual Awards/ Energy Efficient Building Awards included: "Architectural Research on Innovative School Design" 2001; Innovative Housing Design (Hung Shui Kiu) for HK Housing Society 2000, and projects for International School, University, Technical College, and Museum.

He served the School Building Design Committee under the Education & Manpower Bureau; has been an Honorary Advisor of the Hong Kong Red Cross, Caritas Hong Kong (Social Work Services), Hong Kong Society for Rehabilitation, the Urban Renewal Authority District Advisory Committee (Central/ Western), and appointed a Tribunal Member for the Appeal Tribunal (Buildings) and committees under the Buildings Department.

