

Prof Anupam SIBAL

Professor Anupam Sibal joined Apollo Hospitals, New Delhi as a Senior Consultant Pediatric Gastroenterologist and Hepatologist in 1997 and was elevated to the position of its Medical Director in 2003. Dr. Sibal helped achieve the First International Accreditation of a hospital in India by Joint Commission International (JCI), USA in June 2005. Currently, 7 Apollo Hospitals are accredited by Joint Commission International, USA. Dr. Anupam Sibal served as a Joint Commission International Physician Surveyor from 2008 to 2010.

As a clinician, Dr. Sibal established a pediatric gastroenterology, hepatology, nutrition and endoscopy service at the Apollo Centre for Advanced Paediatrics (ACAP), the wing dedicated to pediatrics at the Apollo hospitals and helped set up the first successful liver transplant programme in India in 1998. In the last 2 years this unit has performed 241 liver transplants (26 pediatric and 215 adult) with 90% success. He is on the Editorial Board of 3 Journals and has 69 publications. The Asian Pan Pacific Association of Pediatric Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Nutrition and the Commonwealth Association of Pediatric Gastroenterology and Nutrition and has lectured extensively in India and abroad.

Dr. Sibal was appointed as Adjunct Professor of Paediatrics, School of Medicine, University of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia in June 2009. In October 2009, he was appointed as the member of the Institute Body (the highest decision making body) of the Postgraduate Institute of Medical Education and Research, Chandigarh, ranked consistently in the top 3 public academic health institutes in India.