

Dr. Tse Man Wah, Doris, is currently the Chief of Service of Department of Medicine & Geriatrics / Intensive Care Unit in Caritas Medical Centre and the Honorary Consultant of Our Lady of Maryknoll Hospital. She graduated from the University of Hong Kong in 1984 and attained specialist status in advance internal medicine in 1992, critical care medicine in 1994 and palliative medicine in 1999. She was the founding specialist when Palliative Medicine was established as a subspecialty under the Hong Kong College of Physicians in 1998. Dr. Tse has been actively involved in education in Palliative Medicine for professionals and the public. She was the immediate past Chairperson of the subcommittee in Palliative Medicine, Hong Kong College of Physicians. Dr. Doris Tse has published widely in peer review journals and also a contributor to the 3rd, 4th and 5th edition of Oxford Textbook of Palliative Medicine and the Editor-in-chief of the Newsletter of Hong Kong Society of Palliative Medicine. Dr. Tse has also successfully pioneered a renal palliative care model in Hong Kong, which heralds the development of palliative care for non-cancer locally. Recently she is actively engaged as the Vice Chairperson of the Working Group on DNACPR in Hospital Authority.