

Biography

Dr. Law Chun Bon was graduated from the University of Hong Kong in 1985. He obtained his Hong Kong Academy fellowship in 1993. He was promoted to consultant geriatrician in Princess Margaret Hospital in 1996. His main interest of work has been around geriatrics: dementia, parkinsonism, osteoporosis, end-of-life care and community care services. He is now the Clinical Service Coordinator for Community and Allied Health in PMH and also serving other administrative responsibilities. He is currently the vice president of Chinese Dementia Research Association, council member of the Hong Kong Geriatrics Society, council member of the Hong Kong Bioethics Association.