

Sylvia Yuk-kuen FUNG

Dr. Sylvia FUNG Hon. DHS, MSc(Hosp. & Health Mgt), MBA, Dip.Ed(Nursing), FAAN, FACHSE, RN, RM has been an experienced clinical nurse, a nurse teacher before she took up management posts in an acute general hospital and then the cluster of 7 hospitals. She got master degrees both in business administration and health & hospital services management. From 2008 to 2012, she was appointed the Chief Nurse of Hong Kong Hospital Authority (HA) taking care of 21,000 nurses and nursing services in 40 hospitals. She is an Adjunct Professor in the School of Nursing of the 3 universities in Hong Kong as well as the Honorary Professor in the School of Business of The Tung Wah College. She is a fellow of the Australian College of Health Services Executive and also awarded an international fellow of the American Academy of Nursing. Sylvia is serving in various government boards and councils including the Elderly Commission. Sylvia has received the Best Staff Award of HA in 2004 and Florence Nightingale Award of the International Red Cross in 2005 for her exemplary commitment in the profession.