

Service Priorities and Programmes
Electronic Presentations

Convention ID: 606

Submitting author: Miss Flori Chi Wing LAM

Post title: Advanced Practice Nurse, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, KCC

Multidisciplinary Pain Educational Talks In Kowloon Central Cluster

*Lam CWF(1), Leung KF(2), Chan KLP (3), Leung KLK (4), Wong HSS (1)
(1) Pain Team, Department of ANAE & OTS, Queen Elizabeth Hospital (2)
Occupational Therapy Department, Queen Elizabeth Hospital (3) Rehabaid Centre, Kowloon Central Cluster (4) Physiotherapy Department, Queen Elizabeth Hospital*

Keywords:

pain
communication
resource utilization collaboration
mutual understanding

Introduction

Pain is a complex and multifaceted problem. An effective multidisciplinary teamwork approach is critical for optimizing the health care services model. Communication and mutual understanding among team is also important to better utilize the hospital and community resources.

Objectives

(1)To enhance multidisciplinary communication and collaboration among teams.(2)To broaden the knowledge base of team members. 3)To provide resources and identify appropriate communication strategies. (4)To shares good practices in continuing the quality services. (5) To better utilize the hospital and community resources.

Methodology

A questionnaires to evaluate the course for further improvement

Result

Most of objectives of the programme are achieved among all participants.