

Title:

Effectiveness of a Nurse-led Treatment Intensification Program in Treating Type 2 DM Patients with Diabetic Foot Ulcers and Concomitant Peripheral Vascular Disease

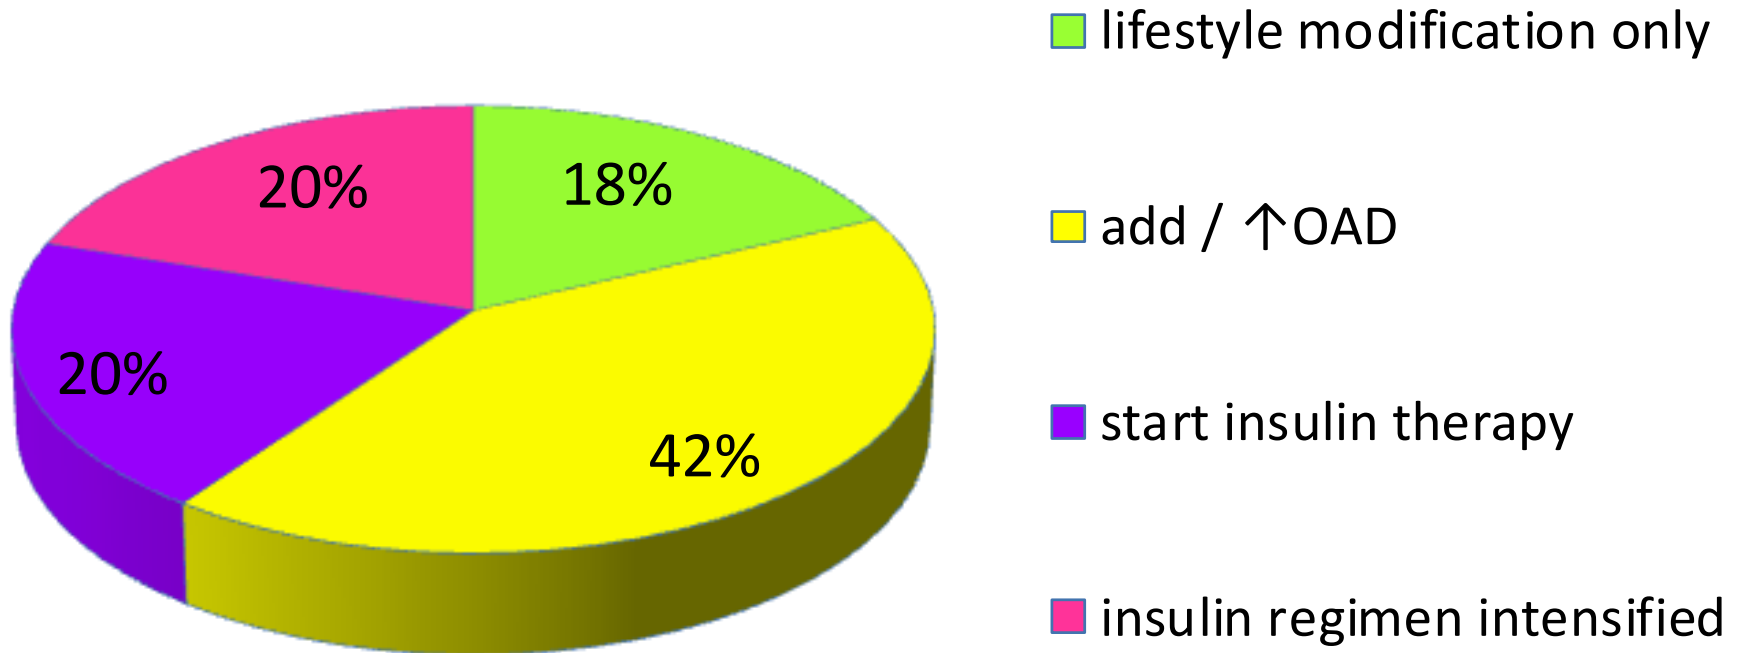

Leung ELY(1), Yeung C
Wong KKC(1), Tan KCB(2)

(1) Department of
(2) Department of Me

Interventions in DM Nurse Clinic

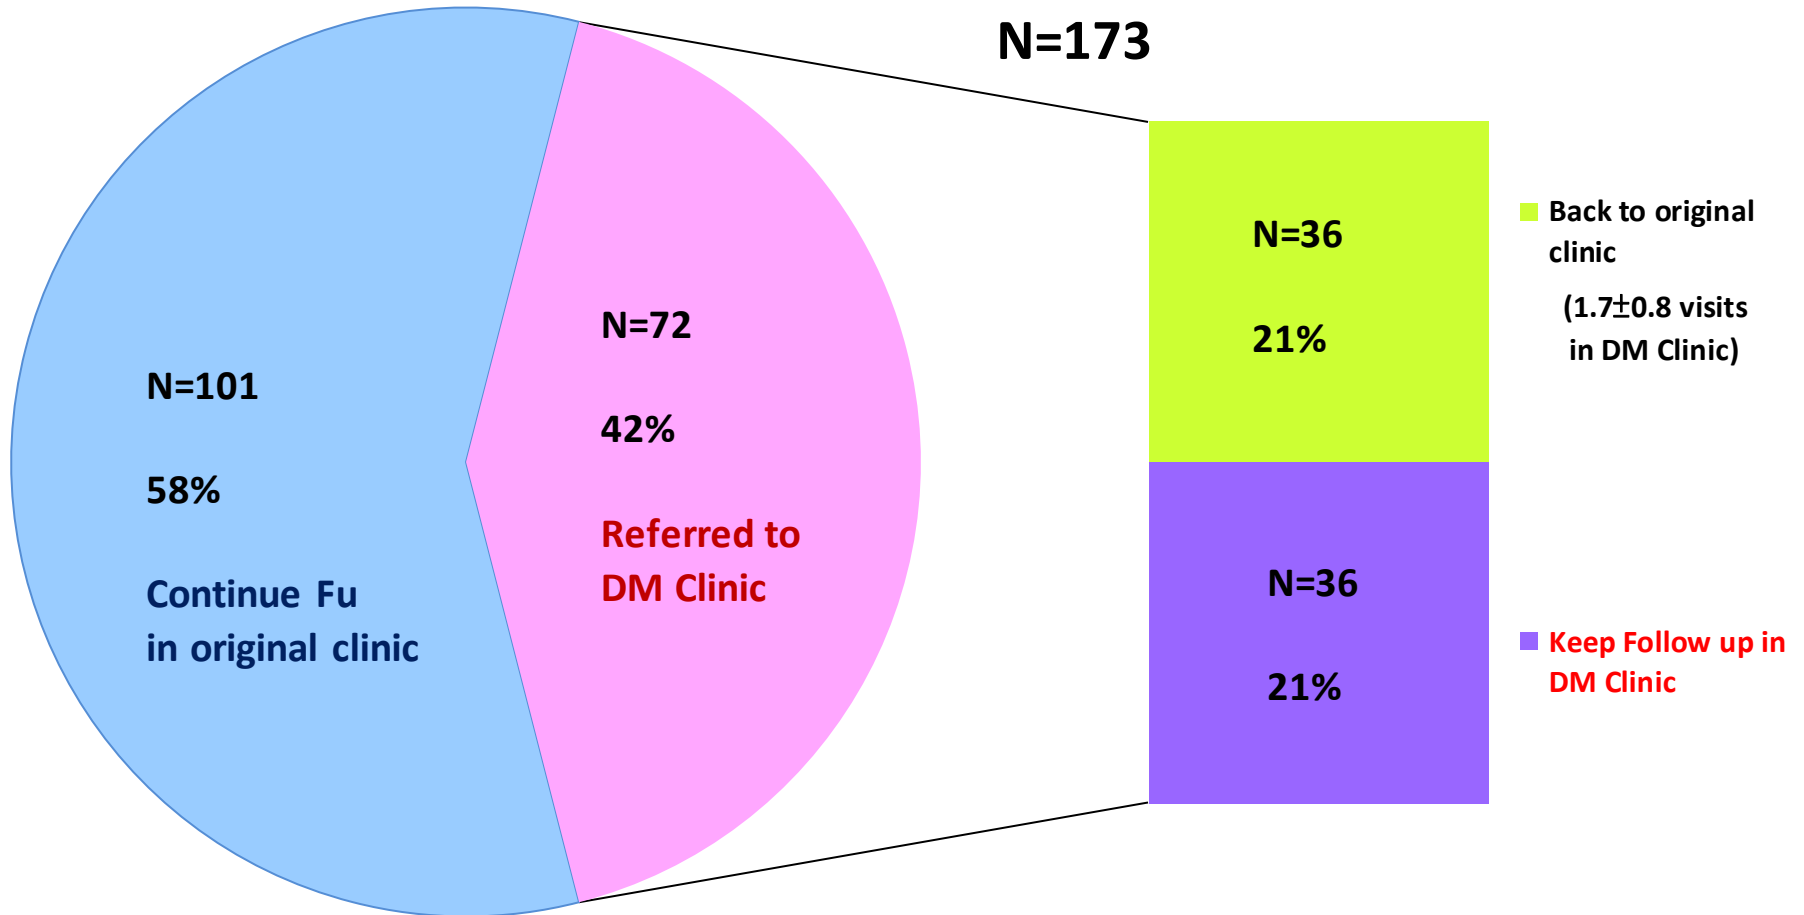

N=173

(3.2 ± 1.5 attendance)

Glycaemic Improvement After DM Nurse Clinic

Follow up Arrangement after DM Nurse Clinic

Conclusion:

- A well-structured, nurse-led program was effective in:
 - improving the glycaemic control of DM patients under care of non-DM medical specialist clinics
 - minimizing unnecessary referrals to DM specialist clinic
 - waiting time for new case referrals can hopefully be reduced in the long-run