

T7.3

Towards Excellence in Hospital Planning and Design

09:00 Theatre 1

Innovations in Hospital Design for Comprehensive Cancer Centres

Grose J

Australia

---

The Kinghorn Cancer Centre is a translational research centre in Sydney. Its design is based on a “human centred” methodology: transforming what is normally an institutional building “type” which is often alienating and mechanistic, to a building type based on human tactility.

This presentation will explore how to embed the human condition into an institutional building.